Citizen Comments

- District resident Paula Borsch commended the School Board and District Benefactor William Campbell for their focus on academics in the district; questioned the enrollment in the Kindergarten classes; asked if all instructional staff members were funded in the 2006-07 school year budget and inquired as to the district's pupil to teacher ratio.
- District resident Donna Dreshman questioned the results of the Woodlawn sale. Mr. Bichko replied that the report had been delivered at an earlier public meeting, but that he would include it again under his Board Secretary's Report at the August 22, 2006, regular meeting. Ms. Dreshman also asked what procedure had been established for the first day of school to deal with students who had not completed the required re-registration process.
